The Project

The goal was to examine country music artist Loretta Lynn – how did her music reflect feminist ideals of the '60s and '70s, how did her life correspond to these ideals, and what impact did she have for women in country music?

Singles

- "Wine, Women, and Song" (1963)
- "Dear Uncle Sam" (1965)
- "Don't Come Home a Drinkin' (with Lovin' on Your Mind)" (1966)
- "One's on the Way" (1971)
- "Rated X" (1972)
- "The Pill" (1974)

Findings

Loretta Lynn not only reflected feminist ideals in her lyrics, but also revolutionized the role of women within country music and held feminist views, even though it was not always apparent in her life.
