Open Access Defined

Open access (OA) literature is digital, online, free of charge, and free of most copyright and licensing restrictions.

Green OA and ScholarWorks

- ▶ Green OA is free of charges
- ▶ ~86% of journals allow Green OA pre-prints
- ▶ Green OA enables authors to choose where they want to publish
- ▶ ScholarWorks emphasizes Green OA

Gold OA

- ▶ Gold OA fees
- ▶ Legitimate journals
- ▶ Increasing in Impact
- ▶ PLOS <https://www.plos.org/>

Predatory Publishers & Journals

- ▶ Not legitimate journals
- ▶ Are getting better and better at hiding
- ▶ Prey on authors who need to publish or perish
- ▶ How to spot the crooks
 - ▶ Language
 - ▶ Promises
 - ▶ Processes

Language

- ▶ Spam requests
- ▶ The website (or email) contains spelling or grammar errors
- ▶ The homepage language overtly targets authors
<http://www.sciencepublishinggroup.com/home/index>
- ▶ Something doesn't add up (American Journal of....)
<http://www.sciencepublishinggroup.com/journal/index?journalid=655>
- ▶ Images are distorted/fuzzy, intended to look like something they are not, or which are unauthorized
<http://www.sciencepublishinggroup.com/journal/index?journalid=655>

Promises

- ▶ Rapid publication is promised
- ▶ The Article processing/publication charge is very low (e.g., < $150 USD)
- ▶ Journals claiming to be open access either retain copyright of published research or fail to mention copyright
- ▶ The Index Copernicus Value is promoted on the website

Processes

- ▶ Description of the manuscript handling process is lacking
- ▶ Manuscripts are requested to be submitted via non-professional and non-journal affiliated email
- ▶ There is no retraction policy
- ▶ Information on whether and how journal content will be digitally preserved is absent
- ▶ The contact email address is non-professional and non-journal affiliated (e.g., @gmail.com or @yahoo.com)

Ask a Librarian

- ▶ Beall's list <https://beallslist.weebly.com/>
- ▶ Google search (predatory)
- ▶ Directory of Open Access Journals (DOAJ)
- ▶ Can check Databases
