

2-1964

Contributors

Follow this and additional works at: <http://scholarworks.sfasu.edu/ethj>

 Part of the United States History Commons

Tell us how this article helped you.

Recommended Citation

(1964) "Contributors," East Texas Historical Journal: Vol. 2: Iss. 1, Article 13.

Available at: <http://scholarworks.sfasu.edu/ethj/vol2/iss1/13>

This Back Matter is brought to you for free and open access by SFA ScholarWorks. It has been accepted for inclusion in East Texas Historical Journal by an authorized administrator of SFA ScholarWorks. For more information, please contact cdsscholarworks@sfasu.edu.

CONTRIBUTORS TO THIS ISSUE

William Seale, of Beaumont, is currently registered in the Doctor of Philosophy program at Duke University. He received a Bachelor of Arts degree from Southwestern University in 1961 and a Master of Arts degree from Duke University in 1963. His dissertation, to be completed in 1965, will be a biography of Margaret Lea, wife of Sam Houston. The article included in this issue is a condensation of his Master of Arts thesis.

Professor Fred Tarpley is an Associate Professor of English in East Texas State College. He is a native of Hooks, Texas and holds the Bachelor of Arts and Master of Arts degrees from East Texas State College and the Doctor of Philosophy degree from Louisiana State University. Professor Tarpley's special field of interest is linguistics.

Professor Joe E. Ericson is an Associate Professor of government at Stephen F. Austin State College. He holds the Doctor of Philosophy degree from Texas Technological College and has published articles in The Southwestern Historical Quarterly and other learned journals. Mrs. Mary P. Winston holds a Master of Arts degree from Stephen F. Austin State College and is a public school teacher in Tyler.

Professor Andrew Forest Muir holds a Doctor of Philosophy degree from the University of Texas and is a member of the history faculty at Rice University. He is the author of a number of studies, and is the associate editor of The Journal of Southern History.

David B. Gracy II is registered in the graduate school of the University of Texas. He is an editorial assistant on The Southwestern Historical Quarterly, and an associate editor for Texas Military History, and has published articles in Texana and the Tennessee Folklore Society.