Contentions Within the Texas Revolution.

The 2007 San Jacinto Symposium promises to be a contentious affair with speakers facing off on factions within the Texas Revolution. Bones of contention include the Texan/Indian relationship, land speculation and slavery, the Texas Rangers, women and the location of a bridge both armies traversed.

Contenders include

Dr. Gary Clayton Anderson (University of Oklahoma),
Dr. Paula M. Marks (St. Edward's University),
historical anthropologist Dr. Fred L. McGhee, and authors Stephen L. Moore and C. David Pomeroy, Jr.
Dr. James E. Crisp returns as moderator.

The Symposium, organized by the Friends of the San Jacinto Battleground, will be on Saturday, April 14, 2007,
at the Hilton Hotel & Conference Center, University of Houston.

The Symposium is approved
for six hours of Certified Professional Education (CPE) credit, and the $45 registration fee covers lunch and parking.
