TEN DOLLARS TO HATE

The Texas Man who Fought the Klan

Patricia Bernstein

Bernstein tells the story of the massive Ku Klux Klan of the 1920s and the first prosecutor in the nation to successfully convict and jail Klan members. Dan Moody, a twenty-nine-year-old Texas district attorney, demonstrated that Klansmen could be punished for taking the law into their own hands.

TRAMMEL'S TRACE

The First Road to Texas from the North

Gary L. Pinkerton

In Trammel's Trace Gary L. Pinkerton tells the story of a borderlands smuggler and an important passageway into early Texas. Named for Nicholas Trammel, it was the first route from the United States into the northern boundaries of Spanish Texas. By the early nineteenth century, Trammel's Trace was largely a smuggler's trail that delivered horses and contraband into the region.

THE TEXAS POST OFFICE MURALS

Art for the People

Philip Parisi

Walk into any of sixty post offices or federal buildings in the state of Texas and you may be greeted by a surprising sight: magnificent mural art on the lobby walls. In this beautiful volume Philip Parisi has gathered 115 photographs of these stunning and historic works of art—36 in full color. He tells the story of how they came to be, how the communities influenced and accepted them, and what efforts have been made to restore and preserve them.

22 b&w photos., 103 color plates. $29.95 flexbound (with flaps)
