NEW FROM TEXAS A&M

ARCHITECTURE THAT SPEAKS

S. C. P. Vosper and Ten Remarkable Buildings at Texas A&M

Nancy T. McCoy and David G. Woodcock

McCoy and Woodcock, distinguished preservation architects and scholars, review the history of Texas A&M campus architecture and provide in-depth coverage of Vosper and his legacy. Illustrated by the sumptuous photography of Carolyn Brown, Architecture That Speaks concludes with observations on recent approaches toward the reuse and rehabilitation of campus heritage architecture and a view to the future, as plans evolve for further development of the campus that maintains a respect for both strategic vision and historical heritage. 11x10. 158 color, 52 b&w photos. 28 line drawings. Bib. Index. $40.00 cloth

TEN DOLLARS TO HATE

The Texas Man who Fought the Klan

Patricia Bernstein

Bernstein tells the story of the massive Ku Klux Klan of the 1920s and the first prosecutor in the nation to successfully convict and jail Klan members. Dan Moody, a twenty-nine-year-old Texas district attorney, demonstrated that Klansmen could be punished for taking the law into their own hands. 44 b&w photos. Bib. Index. $34.95 cloth

BULWARK AGAINST THE BAY

The People of Corpus Christi and Their Seawall

Mary Jo O'Rear

After a devastating hurricane in 1919, the people of Corpus Christi faced the stark reality of their vulnerability. It was clear that something had to be done, but the mere will to take precautionary measures did not necessarily lead the way. Instead, two decades would pass before an effective solution was in place. Mary Jo O'Rear, author of Storm over the Bay, returns to tell the story of a city's long and often frustrating path to protecting itself. 74 b&w photos. $27.95 cloth

The Presidents Speak

MILTON S. JORDAN & DAN K. UTLEY

PAPER * 20.00

"THE PRESIDENTS SPEAK IS AN INVALUABLE TOOL for future leaders of ETHA and other regional historical groups. Covering a wide range of topics, this series of speeches reflects a broad minded inclusiveness that provides history, context and meaning for twenty-first century East Texas."

Heather Green Wooten, PhD
ETHA President, 2017-2018

ONE OF THE IMPORTANT DUTIES of an association president is to deliver an address to the members of the organization. The presidential address provides glimpses of the speaker's convictions, insight into the past and present, vision for the future and renews the membership's dedication to the work of the organization. The addresses collected in The Presidents Speak present a powerful message and leave an important footprint for the East Texas Historical Association and similar organizations.

Kenneth W. Howell, PhD
Director, Central Texas Historical Association

"F. LEE LAWRENCE, A TYLER ATTORNEY, F. I. Tucker, an attorney from Nacogdoches, and C.K. Chamberlain, Chair of the History Department at Stephen F. Austin State University, called the organizational meeting of the East Texas Historical Association at the Nacogdoches school in September 1962. Those attending that gathering selected Chamberlain as editor/director and Lawrence as the first president. One year later, Tucker became president of the association. From 1963 through the end of the century, thirty-seven men and women served one-year terms as president. Throughout those years, the presidents often presented papers at association meetings during their terms in office. They were not called on, however, to offer presidential addresses, a custom that formally began with the new century."

Dan K. Utley
Milton S. Jordan
