NEW THIS FALL IN TEXAS HISTORY

Profiles in Power Twentieth-Century Texans in Washington

Edited by

Kenneth E. Hendrickson, Jr.

Michael L. Collins

Midwestern State University

Collection of thirteen original biographical essays on important national leaders from the Lone Star State. Editors Hendrickson and Collins have contributed to this book and have selected fellow authors who are well-respected historians. Subjects portrayed in this book are: Edward M. House, Morris Sheppard, John Nance Garner, Jesse Jones, Tom Connally, Sam Rayburn, Lyndon Baines Johnson, Ralph Yarborough, Barbara Jordan, John Tower, James Wright, Lloyd Bentsen, and George Bush. Ideal for anyone teaching Texas or twentieth-century American history, political science, or civics, this book will make fascinating and informative reading for Texans and non-Texans alike who are interested in the workings of national politics and the wielding of power in the twentieth century.

Mexican Americans in Texas: A Brief History

Arnoldo De León

Angelo State University

A concise political, cultural, and social history of Mexican Americans in Texas from the Spanish colonial era to the present. Portraying Texas Mexicans as active subjects, not objects, in the ongoing Texas narrative, Professor De León's concise and revisionist work is ideal as a core text for courses that deal specifically with Tejano history or as a useful supplement to courses in Mexican-American, Texas, and American history.
